ABSTRACT

Designed as supplemental material to on-going instruction in the vocational program, this third of three picture dictionary booklets in the Upholstery series is intended to assist the learning handicapped student to master the core vocabulary taught in the trade. Intended for individual or small group instruction with minimal supervision, this module contains two lessons: (1) Applying Final Cover and Welt, and (2) Blind Tacking, Blind Stitching, and Applying Cambrics. The format for each lesson is (1) general directions, including a list of words taught in that lesson, and (2) each word presented on a separate page with a representative picture and simple definition. (The module is intended for use with a cassette tape and flash cards.) An alphabetical index to the vocabulary words in the module is given at the back of the booklet. Two other dictionaries in this series are available as CE 024 422 and CE 024 423. An accompanying teacher's manual is available separately as CE 024 421. (This is one of five series of materials developed by Project HIRE. The two-volume final report of the project is available as CE 024 117 and CE 024 118. See Note for the other series.)

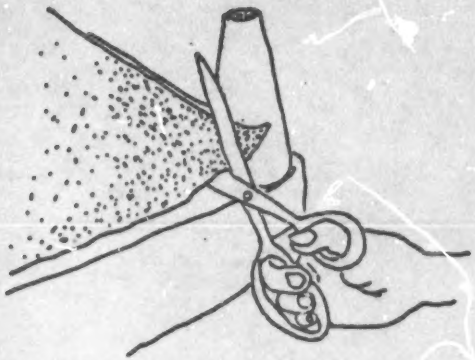
Taut means that the final cover is pulled tight on the frame.

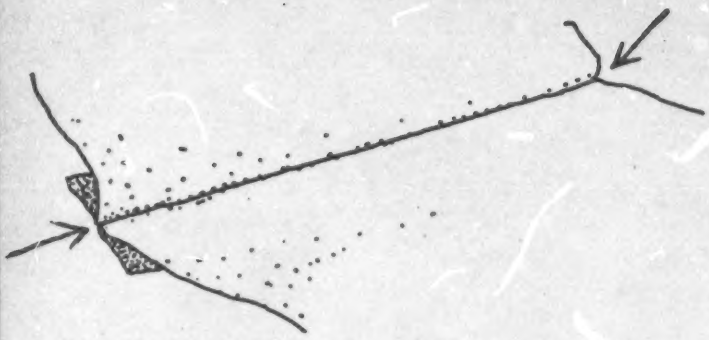
unavoidable waste

Unavoidable waste is fabric that is left over after cutting and fitting.



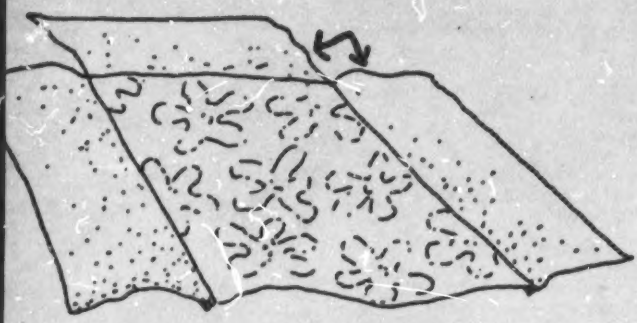
trim

Trim means to cut away unavoidable waste (extra fabric) on the frame.



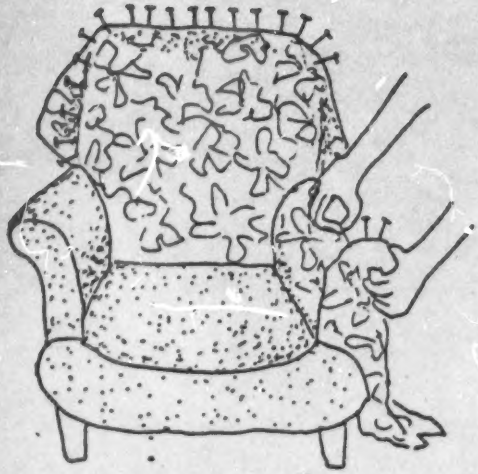
seam

A seam is the line where the two pieces of fabric are sewn together.



pull cloth

A pull cloth is a piece of muslin or denim that is stitched to the edge of the final cover. It is used to pull the final cover taut when tacking. Pull cloth is sometimes called a flyer.



pin tack

Pin tack means to tack the final cover to a frame to see how it fits. When you pin tack, you don't drive the tacks all the way into the frame. Pin tack is sometimes called slip tack.

welt cord

Welt cord is a soft, thick string that is sewn inside fabric when you make welt.
